

est. 1995

A decorative sign with a black wrought-iron frame hangs from a horizontal bar. The sign has a scalloped, cloud-like shape. Inside the sign, the text "est. 1995" is at the top, followed by "BREAD of LIFE" in a large serif font, and "Cafe'" in a cursive script at the bottom. The background of the sign is a light yellow sunburst. The overall background of the image is a gradient from light blue at the top to yellow at the bottom, with wheat stalks in the lower left.

Welcome!

The story of the Bread of Life Cafe didn't start with our famous, homemade rolls or our affordable prices, but rather, it began with one couple's love for children.

Early in their marriage, Jerry and Sandy Tucker desperately wanted to have children of their own. But after trying, doctors said they had a one-in-a-million chance of having a baby. That prognosis launched a journey of adoption, two miracle, biological daughters, and a ministry giving children of all ages a place to call home over the past 40 years and counting.

So, where does the Bread of life Cafe fit in? 1992 saw Sandy (Mom) thinking of new ways to financially support the ministry of the Galilean Children's Home, so she started a small, Christian bookstore in downtown Liberty. Two years later, with the bookstore struggling, Mom added four tables to serve soup and sandwiches every day during lunchtime.

What started as a humble bookstore and luncheon cafe officially opened the doors as Bread of Life Cafe in 1995. Before long our signature rolls (Mom's recipe), a loaded, southern cookin' buffet and an extensive menu brought in enough people daily that our small, downtown location began to bust at the seams. So, we added the 'Bread of life Diner just a few blocks away, and even had a cafe in Hustonville for a short time.

Over the next several years, we wanted to make multiple restaurants one, and in 2001 we cut the ribbon right here, five miles south of Liberty on Highway 127. Our dedication to affordable prices, good ol' southern cookin' and great service is the foundation for what keeps folks, such as yourself, coming back for more.

Though Mom passed away in 2007 after a long battle with cancer, her vision for this restaurant and the ministry, lives on. Every penny spent here after operating costs goes to support the Galilean Children's Home. The Cafe also serves as a place for some of the more capable residents to work while also adding jobs in our community.

In 2008 one of Mom's big dreams for the Bread of Life Cafe came true. We were able to add the spacious, diverse gift and sweet shop she always wanted, with everything from famous, homemade fudge to our unique, tasty rolls and more. There is a section dedicated to information about Galilean Home Ministries with the latest newsletters, two books written by Mom, and even some documentaries and TV shows produced about the ministry. So, don't forget to mosey on through while you're here.

And thank you for stopping by, we're always happy to see you!
